THE BEEHIVE

The weather tomorrow is likely to be fair.

What's the Difference Between the Ohio River Now and the Beehive?

The River is High and Beehive is Low IN PRICES!

Have you seen our line of Carpets? If not you have missed seeing the greatest and most complete line that was ever brought to Maysville. INGRAINS, BRUSSELS, TAPESTRIES and AXMINSTERS in vast varieties, marked with our prevailing low prices. MATTINGS! MATTINGS! MATTINGS! China and Japan are recognized headquarters by matting importers. The "BEEHIVE" is the recognized headquarters of Maysville. Prices from 11c to 45c a yard.

LACE CURTAINS.

Nothing makes a room more cheerful and cozy than Lace Curtains. Our line was never more complete. From 60c pair to $10.

WINDOW SHADES.

Felt Shades 10c; Linen Shades from 25c up. Ask to see those new Shades with lace insertion at 39c and 45c. They are rare bargains.

KINGS OF LOW PRICES

MERZ-BROS.

PROPRIETORS OF THE BEEHIVE

Great Cornbine!

The cheapest kind of goodness and the best kind of cheapness will be found in our announcement today. Cheapness of price without goodness of quality never tempts the sensible buyer. Here you will find a combination of goodness and cheapness of price so strong that it stamps every item named a genuine bargain.

STORM SERGE.

As weatherproof as a bird's feathers, Storm Serge is a necessary fabric for women's wear. Navy blue and black, 60c to $1.50 a yard. The higher grades are much wider. SEPARATE SKIRTS—North Serge you must give up the two, for what gives such service as a storm serge skirt varied by different tasteful waists.

VENETIANS.

This is a plain good season and Venetian is King, or shall we say Queen? Venetians differ. Were we foolish enough to sell you the average sorts we know you'll bring the goods back for you'd quickly find out their shortcomings. A Venetian at 75c is just beginning to be a venetian, good, good looking, durable but barely a Venetian. What is best known as the regular 75c kind we sell for 90c—not to break price, but because we can afford to. We're Venetians to sell as the but that's better. Then other grades at $1, $1.50, $2, the latter from France and of special merit. The 2 1/2% quality is likewise noteworthy.

The colorings are ideal this season. Not in any one blue but in the stock altogether we have a dozen exquisite shades.

D. HUNT & SON.

Up to the present writing CHARLES POYTZ hasn't sent out an injunction to prevent ANDREW COCHRAN from assuming the Judgeship to which President McKinley appointed him.

THERE must have come an end to "Government by Injunction" in Kentucky, else CHARLES POYTZ would have appeared with his little "in-junct" to prevent ANDREW COCHRAN from taking the new Federal Judgeship.

It was that quaint philosopher, JOHN BILLINGS, who said that when a man started down hill everything appeared to be greased for the occasion. There are some politicians not over a thousand miles from Mayville who can now appreciate the full force of that remark.

THE horrible truth about the convictions railroaded through Judge Cassatt's Court seems to have penetrated the stalwart Democratic newspapers of other states, notwithstanding the refusal of the Goebellie press of Kentucky to denounce the outrages committed in the name of law.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal, published in one of the ultra Democratic cities of the South, where few Republican newspapers circulate and where The Courier-Journal is doubtless the chief source of Kentucky news, has read between the lines of the proceedings of the Central Courts and draws the following conclusions: "The do-it-to-itself conclusion of these do-it-to-itself justice and journalistic honesty:

"It is not at all astonishing that the whole Court of Appeals in Kentucky should have reversed case of JIM HUGHES, sentenced to death for shooting WILLIAM GORREL. The evidence against HOWARD was not sufficient to hang a dog on, and his conviction was a travesty on justice. He arrived in Frankfort only a short time before shooting to solicit a pardon from TAYLOR, but the evidence to show that he was about the Capitol when GORREL was killed all turned on his wearing a mustache. Those who saw him there said he wore a black mustache. The proof shows that he hadn't worn a mustache for several weeks before the killing, and his mustache was red, anyway. Yet he was sentenced to death."

Noted Kukkuk Man Surrendered and Sent Back the Girl He Kidnaped With to Parents.

Mayking, Ky., April 29.—By a trustworthy word the news has been received here of the surrender of Creed Potter, one of the most desperate members of the kukkuk gang that is now defying arrest in the mountains near Boone's fork.

Potter, who is only 20 years old, accompanied by two relatives, Martin Britton and Abraham Potter, and a heavy guard, went to Pikeville, Pike county, where he is under indictment on a charge of being a member of the kukkuk gang.

The young outlaw parted with Mary Johnson, a young girl with whom he eloped about a week ago and whom he hid in the mountains. He sent the girl back to her parents.

It is believed that Potter may be allowed to plead guilty to the indictment against him in Pike county. In that case he will receive only a short penitentiary sentence. But it is also said that he may be brought back to Letcher county to answer to a charge of complicity in the murder of Mrs. Hall and her son, last November.

There is a reward of $1,000 for each of the outlaws who were in the battle some four weeks ago.
